The Honorable Sinclair Weeks
Secretary of Commerce
Department of Commerce
Washington 25 D. C.

Dear Sinclair:

It is a pleasure for me to send you our most recent reports on Sino-Soviet Economic Activities which were requested by your office. My people tell me that the next semi-annual report will be out very shortly and that you have been placed on the distribution list for this report as well as for the bi-weekly summaries.

If we can be of any further help in this regard, please let me know.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

(EXECUTIVE REGISTRY)

As you recall, the members of the Cabinet at the 25 July meeting were advised that any member desiring to receive the periodic reports issued by the Agency on the Sino-Soviet Economic Offensive should notify you.

George Becker in Secretary Weeks' office called to tell me that the Secretary would like very much to receive these reports.
